Dear Parents and Carers

Good morning

I hope you are able to make the most of this wonderful weather.

A reminder that Monday is a Training day here at Abbot Beyne School and that no students should attend. We are focussing on further improving the quality of teaching and learning for your child next year.

It was lovely to finally meet so many Year 7 parents this week. I would be really interested in any feedback from parents on how they felt the in person / online consultation evening worked in terms of our planning for next year. I would also be interested in knowing how you felt the timings worked and if having the buzzer helped the flow of the evening. We had over 70% attendance and I genuinely hope we can increase this to over 80% across all year groups next year.

We have lots of events and activities coming up over the next few weeks for our students to get involved in. I hope to be able to see many of you at our school performances next week.

Our internal exams start here at school next week with our Year 12 exams starting on Tuesday. All students should know about their exams and also have revision material available on Showbie. As we focus on achievement, a reminder that any student not completing their homework to an acceptable standard from September will be issued with a detention after school. This has already started in Year 10.

I hope you have a wonderful weekend.

Kind regards

Mr Jamie Tickle
